This tour received rave reviews in 2018. Beautiful hotels, well informed guides along with free time to explore the city. A tour of Dublin, County Kildare known as the center of Ireland's horse breeding industry, Kilkenny Design Center, Waterford Crystal Visitor's Center, Blarney Castle, Killarney, the Ring of Kerry, Dingle Peninsula, Bunratty Castle Hotel and experience a 15th century evening with music, song, and dinner. Journey to the Cliffs of Moher and enjoy the unusual landscape. Say farewell to the Emerald Aisle and fly to Glasgow, Scotland where you will take in the highlights before heading to Edinburgh, a majestic city offering old and new. Tour St. Giles Cathedral with its inspiring stained- glass windows and medieval history. A three day stay at the Atholl Palace Hotel offers beautiful views of mountains, gardens, and the river. Each day a wonderful breakfast is served. On to Trossachs National Park you will experience stunning scenery with majestic mountains, glens, and tranquil beauty of Loch Lomond. Visit a Woolen Mill, Stirling Castle, and Glenturret Distillery for a tour and tasting. Visit a National Park, a battlefield visitor center, a Loch Ness Cruise, and the ruins of Urquhart Castle. A group favorite is a sheepdog demonstration where you will witness the team of dogs working together maneuvering through various obstacles. A return to Edinburgh includes a visit to the Castle where the Scotland's Crown Jewels are displayed, and a tour of the Queen's vessel the Royal Yacht Britannia. Your flight home will be from Glasgow.

Call or text for a complete flier, this is a very condensed version of a wonderful tour.

For an unknown reason, the dates on the Indiana tour is wrong. It is July 25 – 29, 2023 and this is the Ireland and Scotland tour I must have left out. Am I able to make additions or deletions on my IPAD. If so I will bring it.
